

If you're ready to fulfill your dreams, let us show you how.

Conscious Personal Evolution Workshop

Are you ready to live the life you desire?

Do you know what is keeping you from the joyful life of your dreams? Your future is in your hands, and there is a systematic way to get to it! The CPEvolution™ process is designed to help you overcome the obstacles to the life you truly desire by accessing the guidance available within all of us. The objective of the process is to connect you with your internal guidance and help you remove your own unique roadblocks to your grandest desire, which is in glorious harmony with everyone else's grandest desire, and the process guides you to manifest your true desires.

In a comfortable, small group setting, John Longo will share what he has learned about enabling the evolution of our consciousness and manifesting true desires with those ready to understand what is holding them back and how to achieve their goals. With a combination of presentation, exercises, and discussion, this workshop is meant for people exploring broader consciousness for the first time, as well as those more experienced and interested in learning more or comparing approaches.

Sunday, May 8, 2011

2:00 – 5:00 p.m.

4623 Weston Place, Olney MD

In this 3-hour workshop, you'll learn:

- To understand your emotions and why you feel them.
- To use your emotions to find what is blocking you from living the life you truly desire.
- To connect with your guides and your higher self.
- To be guided to your grandest desire and manifest your true desires along the way.
- To use the Enhanced CPEvolution Process FREE for one week.

Please RSVP by May 3 at 973.229.6130 or jlongo@cpevolution.net

Donations are gladly accepted if you feel the workshop is of value. Suggested amount is $25.00.

"I have attended a number of similar presentations over the years, and I can say that John's is by far the best I have witnessed."
